Close of the Enir.

Yesterday was the closing day of the Montgomery County Agricultural Fair, which was hold at Rockville. The attendwhich was been at focusions. The attendance though large did not equal that of Thursday. The storm reached that vicinity at the most interesting part of the programme and emused every case on the grounds to seek shelter from the rafe. The races booked for the afternoon were run in mud. The first race, a county tretting race, for the content of the content of the content of the country of the content of the c three minute class, purse $400, was wen by Roland, with Lady Bashaw scond. In the free-for-all trotting tace, purse $150, Empress gained an easy victory, with Maggie Mitchell second. The victory, with Maggie Mitchell second. The running race, special purse, was won by Ben Lill in two straight heats, Lost Rose second. Among the Washington exhibitors who sectired premiums were J.W. Alsaugh, John A. Baker, F. L. Moore, Charles Stelff, W. D. Beit and W. M. Fowler. The receipts of the fair are as follows: First day, § 00; second, $800, and third, $400. It is thought that the other receipts will swell it to $1.800, of which $500 will be paid for races and $1.000 for premiums, leaving a laisnee for the del t of the association. The Unidentified Skeleton,

The Bay Ridge Exentsion.

The Sunday excursion to Bay Ralge given. by the Veterans of the First Company and Rawlins' Post No. 1, G. A. R., promises to be what it should be—a grand success. Everything has been arranged to make it a pleasant and arrecable trip. What with seven hours at the Ridge, with one hour in Annap-olis to visit the State House, old House of Congress. United States Treasury—not to speak of the delightful grounds of the Academy—will be as much as one can stand in so short a time. Bay Ridge promises to be the resort in the future, not only of excur-sions, but a family resort; everything tend-ing to the comfort of one can be found ing to the comfort of one can be found there, and in another year Bay Ridge will be rs well advertised as Coney Island, as the Bidge is to Maryland and Washington what Coney Island is to New York.
